

- THE -

JUSTICE PROJECT

Identifying and assisting survivors of human trafficking and poverty-driven prostitution

What we do...

OASIS Counseling Center: assisting migrant survivors of human trafficking

Mariposa Counseling: assisting women affected by poverty-driven prostitution

Compass Programme: recovery/integration initiation for SoTs

Safe House: specialized for (West) African survivors of Human Trafficking

Reception Measures for asylum seekers in Germany

anchor center in Geldersheim/Niederwerrn | Photo: Johannes Hardenacke

Gordon Welters for The New York Times

The canteen at the anchor center for asylum seekers in Bamberg, Germany

Photo: InfoMigrants/M. MacGregor

- Lacks in reception centers:
- Proactive counseling
- Psycho-social/psycho-therapy assistance
- General help
- Gender-specific areas
- Direct deportations
- THB victim identification trainings and initiatives

OUR HELP INCLUDES:

-  Counseling
-  Support in the asylum process
-  Safe House
-  Schooling

WHERE TO GO FOR HELP?

The Justice Project e.V.
+49 (0) 721 82 102 730
info@thejusticeproject.de

Karlstraße 21
76133 Karlsruhe
(Europaplatz)

YOU ARE NOT ALONE! CONTACT US!

 Co-funded by the European Union

For more information: www.thejusticeproject.de

What to do if you or someone you know is affected by

HUMAN TRAFFICKING

If any of the following refers to you or someone you know,

CONTACT US! WE WANT TO HELP YOU.

"I was promised a job in Europe (i.e. nanny, waitress, housekeeper)."

"I was lied to about my working conditions."

"I was forced into prostitution by a Madam or others."

"I was abused, raped, kidnapped or threatened."

"I feel isolated or constantly watched."

"I have to pay back high debts."

"I'm afraid of Juju and what will happen to me if I break the oath."

"My family and I are being threatened."

"My boyfriend pushed me into prostitution."

"I'm frightened and feel helpless and hopeless."

AnKER-zentren (Anchor Centers)

GERMAN	ENGLISH
An (kunft)	Arrival
K (ommunale Verteilung)	Municipal distribution
E (ntscheidung)	Decision
R (ückführung)	Return

The Asylum Process in Germany

-  Arrival and registration at a receiving center (or anKER center)
-  Application for Asylum
-  Personal Interview with the Federal Office for Migration and Refugees (BAMF)
-  Decision is made on the asylum application on the basis of the interview
-  The decision is issued in writing along with advice on how to appeal if the application is rejected.

Challenges facing West African VoTs in the asylum-seeking process

- Decline in the use of the Sovereignty Clause
- Principle of Mutual Trust
- Cross-cultural barriers
- Conflicts of national interest

The Welfare System in Germany

If Refugee Status is Granted/SGBII in the German System

Type of Benefit	Adult Monthly Provision	Child Monthly Provision
Social Assistance/Unemployment	360 € - 449 €	285 € - 376€
Housing allowance/subsidies	*based on various factors
Additional Child Benefit		219 € - 250€
Additional Child Subsidies		177 € - 314€
Child Education/Extracurricular		28 €

Additional Benefits Paid:

- Housing/Heating
- Lump Sum: Furniture for first apartment
- Additional money during pregnancy and childbirth
- Contributions to compulsory health and nursing insurance